Mary C. Montgomery, President

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the County Roscommon Society of New York's 88th Annual Dinner Dance. On behalf of all our members, I thank you for joining us on this special evening and I would like to extend a warm welcome to our Honorees, Michael C. Corcoran, Jr. and Sean Mc Neill.

Michael C. Corcoran, Jr. Esq. is the son of Michael C. Corcoran, Sr. who hails from Sheepwalk, Frenchpark, County Roscommon and Catherine E. Corcoran (nee Boland) whose parents hailed from Counties Limerick and Mayo. Michael has one younger brother Daniel of Clark, New Jersey and is the son in law of Past Roscommon Society President Alfie and Helena Sharkey, both natives of Tibohine, County Roscommon.

Sean Mc Neill comes from Trien, Castlereagh, County Roscommon and is the son of the late Jim Mc Neill, RIP, Dereentighue, Ballinlough, County Roscommon and Mary Kelly, RIP, Trien P.O. Castlereagh, Co Roscommon. Sean attended Trien National School and the Christian Brothers School in Roscommon town. Before settling in New York Sean was the manager of ACC Bank in Dublin and the Owner of Clarke's Pub in Dublin. He is past president of the IBO (Irish Business Organization) 2014-2016, and currently runs his own successful real estate company, Mc Neill Real Estate, McNeillNewYork.com and Easyshopnyc.com Sean is also a member of Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY).

Congratulations to our Past President Tom Giblin who this year received the Gael of the Year Award from the United Irish Counties Association of New York, Inc. I would like to thank the members of our committee for the hard work they did in putting the events of this evening together: Msgr. Flanagan- Chaplain, Dermot O'Grady – Vice President, John Kenny - Treasurer, Bill Montgomery - Financial Secretary, Geraldine O'Brien Massey – Recording Secretary, Mary Scally O'Brien – Corresponding Secretary, and Martin Dowd – Sergeant at Arms. Bernie Sharkey Eustace and Gerry Eustace were extremely helpful with the journal and obtaining new members throughout the year. And Past Presidents, Michael Lyons and Kevin O'Connor who were always willing to give good advice. Thank you all so much for your hard work.

Please take time to look through our Dinner Dance Journal. Thank you to all the sponsors for their support. The Journal is our Society's main fundraiser and we are very grateful to those who support it. In turn, we ask you to make a point to patronize our sponsors.

As St. Patrick's Day arrives, The County Roscommon Society will be marching up Fifth Avenue in the 256th New York City St. Patrick's Day Parade on Friday, March 17, 2017. Our assembly point is West 48th Street between Fifth & Sixth Avenue at 3:10 pm. We hope you, your family and friends will join us.

Again, thank you. Happy St. Patrick's Day and congratulations to Michael and Sean. Enjoy the evening.

MICHAEL C. CORCORAN, JR. ESQ.

Michael C. Corcoran, Jr. Esq. is the son of Michael C. Corcoran, Sr. who hails from Sheepwalk, Frenchpark, County Roscommon and Catherine E. Corcoran (nee Boland) whose parents hailed from Counties Limerick and Mayo. Michael has one younger brother Daniel of Clark, New Jersey and is the son in law of Past Roscommon Society President Alfie and Helena Sharkey, both natives of Tibohine, County Roscommon.

Michael began his career with the West Orange Police Department rising through the ranks serving as Detective and ultimately as Deputy Chief and was responsible for all police operations within the Department. Michael earned a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice from John Jay College, a Juris Doctorate from New York Law School and is currently pursuing his Master's Degree in Protection Management at John Jay College in NYC. He is also a graduate of the 227th Session of the prestigious F.B.I. National Academy, an opportunity offered to less than one percent of the top police executive leaders worldwide. As an attorney, he maintains a practice of law devoting his efforts exclusively toward police training and risk management. In February of 2016 Michael accepted the position of Police Commissioner of Rye, NY and as of January 2017 he has been appointed Public Safety Commissioner overseeing the Police and Fire Departments of Rye.

Michael has been married to Carol, a past Roscommon Society honoree, for 22 years and they have three sons, Michael 18, Ryan 14 and Jack 8. He is a member of the West Orange PBA, Local 28, the Essex County Emerald Society, The Friendly Sons of the Shillelagh, Essex County, NJ and the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick of Westchester, NY

Sean J McNeill

Sean comes from Trien, Castlerea, County Roscommon and is the son of the late Jim McNeill, RIP, Dereentighue, Ballinlough, County Roscommon and Mary Kelly, RIP, Trien P.O. Castlerea, Co Roscommon. Sean has three brothers, Patrick, Michael and Peter and four sisters, Maura, Catherine, Teresa and Una. Sean attended Trien National School and the Christian Brothers School in Roscommon town. Before settling in New York Sean was the manager of ACC Bank in Dublin and the Owner of Clarke's Pub in Dublin. He is past president of the IBO (Irish Business Organization of New York) 2014- 2016. In 2001 Sean established his own real estate company, Mc Neill Real Estate, McNeillNewYork.com and is a member of the Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY) He also owns Easysshopnyc.com an on-line shopping service. While President of the IBO, Sean established a program called "Minding Your Business", where in addition to the regular IBO events members would also meet on a monthly basis to share ideas and network.

In 2011 Sean won the Irish Echo Small Business Entrepreneurial Excellence Award and in 2016 he was awarded the Irish Examiner USA Man of the Year.

Sean's hobbies include skiing and cycling and he takes part regularly in the Boston to New York Aids ride each year. He is a Homeless Outreach volunteer, supporter of Lobby for Immigration Reform, a Lions Club and Manhattan Chamber of Commerce member. Sean enjoys cooking, traveling, music and all things Irish. He is also a pescatarian.
